RULES and ELIGIBILITY for the RoR Newcomers League 2020 ~ 2021

- Horses must be registered with RoR (details on website) and must hold current Competition Membership and riders must be aged 15yrs or over at January 1st of current year.
- Eligibility for the Newcomers League: horse/rider combinations who have never previously submitted scores for any RoR Regional Leagues or have submitted scores for any RoR Dressage Series.
- Team Quest/My Quest scores count as unaffiliated as long as the competitor holds BD CLUB MEMBERSHIP only.
- BS Club League scores count as unaffiliated as long as the competitor holds BS CLUB MEMBERSHIP only.
- Scores gained at Riding Club competitions for the sake of the RoR Leagues count as unaffiliated.
- In the case of a shared horse, competitors must submit separate sheets for each horse/rider combination and the horse can only be entered once in any Championship class.
- Points to be gained by competing in: Dressage, Show Jumping, Combined Training and Arena Eventing ONLY and at any live (not online) competition/show/event
- Results from other disciplines and ONLINE competitions will NOT be accepted for the RoR Newcomers League.
- To compete in the Dressage Finals, horse/rider combinations must have qualified (top 75 placing in 2020 – 2021 National Unaffiliated League - Dressage). Championship classes for Intro, Prelim, Novice and Elementary.
- To compete in the Performance Finals, horse/rider combinations must have qualified (top 50 placing in 2020 – 2021 National Unaffiliated League - Performance). The Performance Finals will be in 'Style & Performance' format and there will be two classes, 85cm and 100cm.
- Due to Covid 19 restrictions and the verifying of score sheets, competitors must now submit evidence of their results. This can be a photo of the event scoreboard or screenshot of online results or a photo of the actual test sheet (which must have the date, venue, horse's RoR registered name and be signed by the judge)
- The 2020 - 2021 League will commence on the 1st September 2020 and will end on 30th June 2021.
- All competitors must register for this competition by submitting the relevant registration form to be eligible to compete in the 2020 - 2021 League. Upon acceptance of registration, competitors will receive their League Score sheets by email.
- League Sheets to be returned via email to leagues@ror.org.uk for independent scoring as instructed on the sheet.
- There will be an overall RoR National Unaffiliated League Score Board on the website which will also incorporate the Newcomers' and the Riding Club Members' scores.
- Members may compete in more than one league so long as they are eligible.
- Competitors must submit scores that equate to at least 10 points before their results are added to the Score Board.
- Score sheets must be returned by the stated date for the results to be included
- RoR reserves the right to expand or restrict the competition and prize structure.
